CORAM : HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE MD SHAH

Date : 26/12/2007

ORAL JUDGMENT

1. By way of this petition, the present petitioner has challenged the impugned order passed by Dy.Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation, M.S. Building, Nadiad dated 28.9.2001.

Heard the learned advocate for the petitioner and Mr A.A. Dave, learned AGP for the respondent No.3.

2. It is submitted by the learned advocate for the petitioner that without giving any details regarding determination of market value, in printed form, order was passed by the Dy. Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation, Nadiad in a casual manner. It is submitted by him that after taking into consideration certain principles regarding determining the market value of the land, he has passed the impugned order on the basis of which the respondent No.1 has valued the property in question at Rs.16,82,854/-- and therefore, deficit Stamp Duty of Rs.1,18,190/- and fine of Rs.250/- was required to be paid to the authorities. A Notice was accordingly sent to the petitioner on 9.6.2003. It is submitted by him that the respondent authority has not considered the fact that the petitioner has purchased the plots in question at a market value and the respondent authority has also not considered the market value as per Jantri decided by the State. Therefore, it is prayed that the decision of the respondent authorities is required to be quashed and set aside.

3. In support of his submission, the Learned advocate has placed reliance on the following decisions of this court:

(1) 2003 (1) GLR 454 vol.44 (Pradhyaumanbhai Mohanlal Patel v. State of Gujarat

(2) 2006 (3) GLR 2252 (Mayurkumar J Patel v. Dy.Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation Department, Rajkot)

In the above decisions, it is held by this court that without giving any reasons and without applying mind towards any of the defences raised by the petitioner therein, in printed format the impugned order has been passed wherein some gaps have been filled in and one and two sentences have been added. It is also held by this court that it is the duty vested in the respondent authorities to justify its say for higher market value for the land in question, and thus, the order in question was quashed and set aside by the court in the aforesaid decision.

4. The respondent Collector has passed final order on 28.9.2001. The Appeal of the petitioner was rejected by the said authority on 28.3.2007 on the ground of delay. There is a considerable delay in communicating the said order of rejection.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, it is apparent that the impugned order is in printed form and only some gaps have been filled up by the authorities without giving any reasons. This clearly shows total non-application of mind on the part of the respondent- Authorities. Under these circumstances, the impugned orders are required to be quashed and set aside.

6. In the result, the petition is allowed. The impugned order passed by the Dy.Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation Organisation, Nadiad and by the appellate authority are quashed and set aside. Consequently, the matter is remanded to respondent No.2 for taking fresh decision and for passing a speaking order as per the Act, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the petitioner. Respondent No.1 is directed to dispose of the matter accordingly, within a period of three months from the date of receipt of the writ of this order.

Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent. No order as to costs.
